

HATTIE TELLS OF THREATSIn Deposition Which Was Admitted By Court To-day

IN GLOVER WILL CONTEST

The LeBlanc Girl Said She Had Heard Mrs. Glover Threaten Her Husband in the Presence of a Third Party.

Cambridge, Mass., April 28.—The deposition of Hattie Le Blanc was read to-day to the Middlesex supreme court jury which is hearing the evidence in the contest of the will of Clarence F.
Glover, the murdered Waltham laundryman. Miss Le Blanc, who was required of the murder of Glover, told of her life in the Glover home in her deposition which was taken at St.
John, N. B., last week. She said that the couple quarrelled frequently. She said that she never saw either show any evidence of fondness for each other and she also said she had heard Mrs. Glover threaten her husband before a third person.

The deposition was admitted only after a struggle. Judge Hammond taking the objection under advisement last night following the request of the attorneys for the contestants. Attorney Fletcher Ranney, who appears for the executor, came forward with a protest.
He objected to the admission of the document on the grounds that the magistrate before whom it was taken had excluded certain material questions, and that other questions of importance which were asked the Le Blanc girl had been left unanswered. He claimed, further, that Miss Le Blanc, who was acted as interpreter and stenographer, when the questions were asked, was an interested person.

Clarence Lived in Constant Fear.

Three of the brothers who are contesting the will, Norman S. William L. and Arthur B., took the stand Wednesday to testify that Clarence F. Glover lived in fear of death at the hands of his wife, and that this apprehension led him to make the will excluding them from an interest in the estate. Their testimony was corroborated by Mrs.
Gertrude M. Glover, the wife of Arthur Glover.

Norman Glover testified to several conversations with Clarence during the period preceding the signing of the will. Telling of one talk in the early part of 1909, he asserted that Mrs.
Glover on this occasion said that Mrs.
Glover "had threatened to shoot him again and again," and that life with her was "a perfect hell," since they were constantly quarrelling.

In agreement with the testimony of the other brothers, Norman stated that during the months preceding the making of the will the relations of Clarence with the contestants in the present case were "very pleasant."

During cross examination Atty. Ranney read the witness portions of his testimony before Dist. Atty. Higgins the week after the murder, asking him if his answer to a question as to when he had last seen his brother had not been "Oh, years ago." Norman said that he did not remember making this statement.

As his brothers had done, Norman admitted that he had not been to the home of his brother Clarence nor received letters from him on any of his trips away from home during the 18 months prior to the framing of the will.

Customs Agents Say Sleeper Trunk Frauds Are Rivalled by Method.

Washington, April 28.—Secret agents of the customs service have discovered a system of smuggling goods from Paris that promises to rival the sleeper trunk frauds.

Undervaluations and fraudulent manifests are said to be the means.

Some of the smugglers convicted and fined in the trunk frauds are said to be the leading spirits. Raids which customs officers planned to make yesterday in New York and Chicago were expected to uncover quantities of the smuggled goods with values running into several thousand dollars.

NOT ASKING GERMAN HELP.

Spain Issues Semi-Official Note on Morocco Situation.

issued yesterday by the Spanish government said that the progress of the Spanish did not develop. Senator La Follette contenting himself with reading a formal protest against the selection made by the regular Republicans.

LOCKOUT OF BUILDING OPERATORS

Unless Disputes Are Settled Tuesday, 35,000 Men Will Be Out.

Chicago, April 29.—Architects and building contractors have served an ultimatum on the warring labor unions that unless they settle their jurisdictional disputes by Tuesday, there will be a general shut down of building operators here. Already several thousand workmen are idle because of these jurisdictional disputes. It is estimated that the threatened lockout will throw at least 35,000 men out of employment.

HOUSTON BILL PASSES.

Fixing Size of National House at 433 Members.

Washington, April 28.—The Houston bill, providing for the enlargement of the national House of Representatives from 391 to 433 members and the apportionment of these members to the different states on the basis of the population shown by the recent federal census, passed the House last night after vain effort of members of both political parties to amend it in important particulars.

The proposed size of the House is identical with that provided for in the Crumpacker bill passed by the House at the last session of Congress, but not acted upon by the Senate. The Houston bill leaves to the legislature of the different states the power to rearrange the congressional districts in their respective states, on the new population basis, of one member for each 211,877 inhabitants.

The two important amendments proposed yesterday and defeated after lengthy debate were to put the redistricting power in the hands of the governors of states, when the legislatures had failed to act; and to limit the House in the future to a membership of 430 or 432, leaving future apportionment to the secretary of the department of commerce and labor.

Both of these amendments were vigorously championed by Republicans.

ALLEGED THIEVES

ARRESTED TO-DAY

Two Others Said to Be Connected With the Hold-up of Paymaster and Robbery of $15,000—All Pleaded Not Guilty.

Great Barrington, Mass., April 28.— Four persons were arrested here to-day in connection with the hold-up last November of the paymaster of the construction company by three men, who stole from him the company's pay roll of $15,000 and then escaped into the woods.

and Frederick Laforce, charged with robbery, and Frederick Soules and his wife, charged with complicity. The defendants were given a hearing in district court. All pleaded not guilty and were held for a continued hearing. No in-

FIGHT TO BE PUSHED.

Canadian Government Decides to Continue Reciprocity Battle.

Ottawa, April 28.—The fight of the opposition against the Fielding-Knox reciprocity agreement settled down to more rigid lines yesterday and as a result not a speech on the subject was heard in Parliament. The Conservatives blocked the government's attempt to bring up the question by filing a discussion upon charges against a French member.

With both parties in a position from which the leaders declare they will not retreat a deadlock has been established which may last for weeks. The announcement Wednesday by Opposition Leader Borden that his party would make no move to follow by a censure of government supporters yesterday at which a determination was expressed to push the fight aggressively.

THREAT TO SHOOT STOPS PANIC.

Film Catches Fire in a Moving Picture Theatre, 300 Rush to Door.

Tarrytown, N. Y., April 28.—More than three hundred men, women and children jumped from their seats at a moving picture show here last night when a film caught fire.

"I'll shoot the first man that tries to rush," shouted Policeman Thomas Welch, who stationed himself near the exits as the crowd started its rush and the men began to push ahead of the women. His threat had an instan-taneous effect on the unruly crowd, and without further sign of panic the spectators moved quietly out. The fire department put out the blaze with little damage.

LONDON FAVORS ARBITRATION.

Meeting To-day Pledged Support to the Principles of Arbitration Treaty.

London, April 28.—Guildhall to-day witnessed a meeting for the adoption of resolutions pledging the city to support the Anglo-American complete arbitration treaty. Premier Asquith moved the resolution, which was seconded. The resolution said that this meeting of London's citizens cordially welcomed the proposal of the United States in favor of a general arbitration treaty between that country and the British empire and pledges its support to the principles of such a treaty. Premier Asquith and former Premier Balfour spoke eloquently of the treaty, declaring that it would mark a new era in civilization.

SENATE ORGANIZED TO-DAY.

Adopted List of Committee Appointments as Drawn up by Both Parties.

Washington, D. C., April 28.—The Senate formally organized for business today by adopting the list of appointments to committees drawn up by a majority of both parties. The expected fight against the adoption of the list, threatened by the progress of the Republicans, did not develop. Senator La Follette contenting himself with reading a
made by the regular Republicans.

35,000 Men Will Be Out.

Chicago, April 29.—Architects and
building contractors have served an
tional disputes by Tuesday, there will
jurisdictional disputes. It is esti-
ployment.

lower than at this date last year, and is practically stationary.

WOMANS BODY
BROUGHT UPMrs. Allison Judd of St. Albans, Committed Suicide

IN RESERVOIR AT FAIRFAX

She Was First Missed This Morning at the Home of Homer Judd, Where She Was Visiting, Body Recovered This Afternoon.

St. Albans, April 28.—The body of Mrs. Allison Judd of this city was found early this afternoon in the lower city reservoir in the town of Fairfax, and it is the general belief that the woman committed suicide during a temporary derangement of the mind.
The woman, who was middle-aged, had been subject to spells of insanity and had been at one time an inmate of the state asylum at Waterbury.

Mrs. Judd went from this city to Fairfax yesterday to visit her brother-in-law, Homer Judd, whose home is but a short distance from the reservoirs of the St. Albans water system. The members of the Judd household retired early as usual last evening, and their visitor also went to bed early.
The family arose at 5:30 this morning, and one member went to Mrs. Allison Judd's room to call her for breakfast.
They got no response, and after investigating found that their visitor had left.

A search was soon instituted as it was feared that the woman might have attempted suicide while suffering from an attack of mental illness. Mayor Greene of this city was notified, and he, with members of the city council, went to Fairfax and conducted an examination of the reservoirs, expecting that Mrs. Judd had, thrown herself into the water. They searched all the forenoon and at 12:15 this afternoon brought up the body by means of grappling hooks. There is no doubt in their minds that it was a case of suicide.

Both of the acts at the Pavilion are appealing winners, both scoring heavily last night, and both are worthy of the highest compliments. The Venetian street singers are excellent harmony singers, also render some very pleasing instrumental numbers and vocal solos.
Their acts will rank among the best ever heard at the Pavilion. Rose and Rose are, without a doubt, the best sharp shooters ever seen in the city. Their snappy rifle shooting is far ahead of anything of similar nature ever seen in Barre, one of their shots is to split a bullet on the edge of a knife, showing so accurate that each half of the bullet snuffs a candle, then taking two snaps, two knives and four candles and repeating the operation. Another trick is to fasten two rifles to a gun, take two other rifles, one in each hand, shoot and hit the triggers of the guns on the table, which explodes and shoot two small targets just above the marksmen's head. Some shooting isn't it, and one of the team is a woman.

JOINED FLAGS
THE SYMBOLAt Big Banquet of Barre's
Canadian Club

400 PERSONS ATTENDED

Among the Number Were Several Distinguished Representatives of Canadian Life Who Brought Messages of Good Will.

Perfect in every detail as to arrangement, the third annual banquet of the Canadian club, held in Howland hall last evening, was carried out in such a highly meritorious manner that fully 400 persons who attended were unanimously in describing it as an unequalled success. A notable list of speakers, including clergymen, professional men and figures prominent in every walk of life, combined with a praiseworthy response to the high order of the spirit of the occasion; it was the general feeling of brotherhood and good fellowship instantly sensed on entering the hall that straightaway marked the banquet as an event which nearly approached an epoch in the history of the Canadian club in Barre.

Draped on the wall at the entrance to the hall, a large British flag significantly intertwined with the stars and stripes mutely told the spirit of the occasion. Almost the only decoration attempted the simplicity was all the more effective for suggesting a common ground of sympathy where loyal sons and daughters of the Dominion met those of other birth and blood who yet could feel the bond of common brotherhood. "International Peace" was the keynote of every thought, and every speech expressed the trend of the nations toward amiable settlement of difficulties by arbitration.

M. M. Gordon, historian of the club, presided throughout the banquet, happily introducing the various speakers in turn. Rev. W. J. M. Beattie, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, asked the blessing. After dinner, the entire company arose by common consent and offered toasts to "President Taft and His Majesty, King George the Fifth." S. Hollister Jackson was unavoidably absent and President Donald Smith said a few words of welcome.
The toastmaster, besides, extended a welcome to the guests on behalf of the club and followed by introducing Hon.
Urban J. Ledoux, ex-American consul at Prague, Bohemia, Austria, and member of the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

The banquet in addition to being the third annual occasion of its kind, was held to commemorate the proposed celebration which marks one hundred years of peace between Canada, the British empire and the United States.
Mr. Ledoux took for his topic, "Hands Across the Seas and Border."

He proved himself a brilliant speaker, and his remarks sparkled with wit. He is a zealous worker for international peace and handled his subject in a manner that showed an intimate acquaintance with the conditions that are to make for universal peace.

He spoke substantially as follows:
"In a general survey of the progress of humanity the tendencies have continually been in an ascending line—the federation of mankind. By stages has mankind evolved world organization from the enlistment of family ties to those of tribes, clans, hordes, provinces and states into the creation of great nations, and in federation of nations such as the British empire, the United States, the German and American empires and the pan-American union."

"Steam, electricity and a thousand other inventions have bound man to humanity with indissoluble ties of mutual interest. These are the ties which can evolve a proper spirit of nationalism, which, without shirking national and imperial duties, will assume a certain share of humanity's international responsibility. This means strong, independent nations united in one effort, the happiness of mankind."

The speaker then showed the terrible cost of militarism to the nations. Discussing its cost—the necessary appendage of imperialism in the present state of the world organization, or disorganization—he gave some interesting figures that aided his argument with telling effect. Continuing, he said: "What a terrible toll are we not paying for our lack of the proper international spirit. But now the world's international endeavors are centering their best energies to the creation of the proper international spirit. Realizing that through the binding forces of science, humanity is being divided into broad strata—such as that of commerce, the professions, etc.—absolutely international in character, they are organizing these into armies of progress for the unarmed and peaceful advancement of mankind."

"One hundred and thirty-two out of two hundred of the world's greatest international associations," he concluded, "met in a world's congress at Brussels this last summer and completed the organization of a central office of international associations for this very purpose."

Ex-Mayor of Sherbrooke Speaks.

Hon. John Leonard, ex-mayor of Sherbrooke, P. Q., was next called up to respond to "Canada, as It Is Today." He told of the industries, natural resources, etc., of the Dominion and predicted that within a few years the provinces of Alberta, Manitoba and Saskatchewan would comprise the grainery of the world. He expressed his opinion that the greater of Canadians would sanction reciprocity with the United States, although many of the manufacturers would be opposed.
He believed that Champ Clark's statement had strengthened the opposition in Canada and that he had made a bad mistake if the statement was made.

DEATH OF MRS. LUCY GRAVES.

Oldest Member of Waterbury Congregational Church, Aged 82 Years.

Waterbury, April 28.—Mrs. Lucy Graves passed away yesterday afternoon at quarter past two at her home on the Duxbury side of the river. Although in poor health for some time, for two days only had had condition seemed any worse and her going was as one quietly sinking to sleep. Lucy Huntley was born in Duxbury June 16, 1829, the daughter of Gilman and Tryphena (Kingsley) Huntley. Her grandfather, Nathan Huntley, was one of the earlier settlers of Duxbury and town clerk of that town from 1846 to 1850.
On October 18, 1857, she was married to Arad Graves and they settled on the farm where she died. Later they moved to the village and some time lived in the house now owned by Mrs.
Nellie Chase. While here they were both active workers in the Congregational church, of which Mrs. Graves was the oldest member. Mr. Graves died March 17, 1895. Mrs. Graves was of that sunny disposition which would not acknowledge shadows, indulgent to her family and beloved by all. She is survived by her two children, Mrs.
James E. Morse and Arthur H. Graves, of Duxbury, three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Her only sister Mrs. Lovell, died three years ago. One brother, Frank Huntley, is living. The funeral will be held from her late home Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, with burial in the cemetery near the house.
